

25% of married women in Senegal have an unmet need for contraception.

Thousands of women in Senegal lack access to sexual and reproductive health services. They need access to modern contraceptive methods, counseling and postabortion care.

