$607.5 million in U.S. foreign assistance for family planning means 27 million women and couples receive contraceptive services thereby helping them avert 6 million unintended pregnancies which prevents 2.3 million induced abortions (2 million of them unsafe) and saves the lives of 11,000 women.

Source: Guttmacher Institute