

More than half of U.S. women of reproductive age live in states that are hostile or extremely hostile to abortion rights

