

States have taken many routes to restricting access to abortion over the last five years.

Type and number of abortion restrictions enacted between 2011–2015

¹Includes provisions related to abortions after viability and bans of abortions at 20 weeks' postfertilization and of second-trimester abortion methods.

²Includes provisions related to fetal heartbeat testing. ³Including provisions related to transfer agreements. ⁴Includes bans for race or sex selection and for genetic anomaly.