FIGURE 1. Percentage of infants whose mothers underwent postpartum sterilization, by disability status of the infant (focal child) and of older children in the household

*Percentage with severe disability is significantly different from other percentages at p<.05. Note: Data are weighted and adjusted for clustering. Source: Matched data from the 1993 National Health Interview Survey and the 1995 National Survey of Family Growth.